What is cookies

A cookie is a small string of information, a text file, transferred to and stored on your computer for identification purposes. Cookies can be used to follow your activity on the Site and that information helps us to understand your preferences and improve your experience and use of our Services.

By using the Site and the Services you consent to Spiromagic's setting of cookies on the devices.

The Site uses 'session cookies' to keep you logged in within same browser session. Session cookies will expire after 120 minutes.

'Persistent' cookies are used by the Site to automatically keep you logged in, if you have accepted the "keep me logged in"-functionality on Spiromagic's log in page. Furthermore persistent cookies are used to remember your preferences for display of the map functionality. Persistent cookies will expire after 31 days from your last visit at the Site.

Third party cookies

Besides Spiromagic's cookies, the Site sets cookies from Google Analytics and Facebook. Both are persistent cookies and used to analyze Site statistics and User behavior. Google Analytics do not collect personal information. Facebook cookies are used for the login feature only. You can learn about expiration on cookies from Google Analytics and Facebook at:

<https://developers.google.com/analytics/devguides/collection/analyticsjs/cookie-usage?hl=da> and

<http://www.facebook.com/help/cookies>.

We use Google AdSense and DoubleClick Dart to serve ads on the Site based on your visit our Site and other Internet sites. The services uses 'permanent cookies'.

Turning off cookies

You can turn off all cookies, in case you prefer not to receive them. You can also have your computer to warn you whenever cookies are being used. For both options you have to adjust your browser settings. If you turn off all cookies, you may not have access to features that makes your experience more efficient and some Services may not function accurate.
